- Companies may enter a four-person team in each of the following competitions: Men's, Women's, and Coed. Coed teams will consist of 2 men and 2 women, entrants in the Coed competition cannot participate in the Men’s or Women’s events.
- Team rosters are not required except for those teams bowling at Gladstone Bowl. All other teams to report to assigned lanes. Company will enter bowler’s first and last names, assistance will be available.
- Teams will randomly be checked for player eligibility. Make sure each participant has a photo ID available at game time in the event of a random check. Failure to show IDs at a random check will result in a forfeit, as well as any point penalties resulting from a forfeit.
- If a bowler arrives after his/her team has begun the competition, they will be allowed to start bowling at the frame when they arrive. No bowlers may bowl missed frames due to late arrival.
- Participants will pay for shoe rental including tax, should center require, on the day of competition.
- Coed rules are the same as Men's and Women's, bowling order does not matter.
- No handicapping allowed; all games rolled are scratch games.
- Three game "sets" will constitute the total scores for team competition.

- The best three-game series, by an individual, will determine Individual Winners (by Division).
- Please refer to the KCCC Point System for information on points for Bowling.
- Companies must submit their team's commitment to participate in each men's, women's, and coed sessions by March 2, 2023. No teams will be added after that deadline.
- For the health and safety of all KCCC participants, staff, and volunteers, we ask anyone experiencing symptoms of illness to abstain from the event.
